PENDELEN TUSSEN
THEORIE EN PRAKTIJK

A close-up photograph of a person climbing a rock wall. The climber is wearing a white tank top, blue denim shorts, and white sneakers with red accents. They are wearing a climbing harness and a rope. The rock wall is painted with various colors, including red, green, and blue. The climber's right hand is gripping a blue handhold, and their left hand is gripping a green handhold. The background is a blurred green and blue.

The image shows a perspective view of an empty lecture hall. Rows of light-colored, foldable chairs are attached to black metal desks. The desks are arranged in a tiered fashion, with each row slightly higher than the one in front. The floor is covered in a red carpet. The lighting is even, and the overall atmosphere is quiet and orderly.
